Pursuant to the Bill of lading(s) mentioned above, we undertake and guarantee to ensure delivery of cargo within 7days of discharge at destination port as per the local port policy in force.

In consideration of our complying with the above confirmation, we hereby agree jointly with our consignee as follows:

1. To indemnify Maersk, any of your agents, servants, officers, employees and/or sub-contractor from any claims, liability, losses, costs, charges, fine, damages and expenses (including any kind of legal expense) arising from, in consequence of or in any way connected to doing business with us, our affiliate or our representatives.
2. We undertake that any act of fraud, misrepresentation by us, our affiliate or any of our representatives is done on our behalf and makes us liable.
3. To provide Maersk with all relevant permit/license/approval certificate for importation of our cargo before loading from origin
4. To indemnify Maersk and your sub-contractors against all consequences of our so doing in the case we are not able to provide all the authorization and needed documentation 72 hours prior the vessel arrival that will demonstrate readiness for delivery of cargo upon discharge
5. As demonstration of our delivery readiness, we shall pay all applicable shipping charges, terminal charges and Customs charges at least 72 hours prior the vessel arrival
6. Maersk shall reserve the right to retain on board and/or return cargo to origin should we fail to demonstrate readiness for delivery of cargo upon discharge
7. Ensure final delivery of cargo out of the port within 7 days of discharge
8. To hold all our directors personally liable in the event of non-compliance of the company's obligations as it relates to this cargo.
9. All consequent charges due to our failure or non-performance shall be charged to our account
